

A Place to Shine Music

The Conscious Singer Workshops

Presented by Professional Singer, Songwriter & Vocal Coach
Cassandra Vohs-Demann

"Freedom of Expression Without Barriers"

This 4 week class is designed for any level adult singer, songwriter, public speaker or performance artist to help improve their overall live performance skills. Using her "Performance Pyramid" (©2007), Cassandra will cover technical, emotional, mental and energetic elements of performance to help you on your way to a much deeper connection to yourself and your audience. Cassandra brings her 20+ years of experience as a professional performer, producer, director and vocal coach to share with you in this dynamic workshop. Cassandra's fun and nurturing coaching style will put you at ease and help you through the blocks that may hinder you from feeling free to express yourself. She will teach you to create an authentic, memorable "experience" for your listeners. (Students come prepared to perform a memorized selection that you would like to work on in class. A piano, sound system and microphones are provided)
